

Level 1 Award in Food Safety for Retail Sample Questions

1. What should you do if you see a broken window in a food room?
 - A Continue to work as normal
 - B Immediately advise your supervisor
 - C Advise your supervisor first thing in the morning
 - D Inspect the premises for signs of a break-in

2. High-risk foods are foods that:
 - A are unsafe to eat and contain large numbers of bacteria
 - B may contain sharp bones and need to be cooked
 - C must be cooked thoroughly before eating
 - D are ready to eat and support the growth of bacteria

3. Which of the following statements about food poisoning is correct?
 - A Usually results in death
 - B Symptoms are difficult to detect
 - C All cases of illness are food poisoning
 - D It can be prevented by good hygiene practices

4. It is critical to wash your hands after:
 - A handling food
 - B putting on protective clothing
 - C visiting the toilet
 - D having a drink

5. Which one of the following areas should be regularly disinfected?
 - A All surfaces in a food room
 - B Surfaces which come into contact with food
 - C Floors, walls and ceilings
 - D Surfaces in the raw vegetable area