

Level 1 Award in Health and Safety for Carers Sample Questions

1. A sign that indicates the location of first aid equipment is:
 - A a blue cross on a white background
 - B a red cross on a green background
 - C a green cross on a white background
 - D a white cross on a green background

2. Before employees are designated as 'first aiders' they must:
 - A wear a badge identifying them as first aiders
 - B look after the first aid kit and make sure it is well supplied
 - C provide first aid only to the employees of the organisation
 - D undergo appropriate training

3. What is the colour of a safety sign that gives a warning such as 'Beware slippery floor'?
 - A Blue and white
 - B Red and white
 - C Green and white
 - D Yellow and black

4. Which one of the following statements about the use of electricity is true?
 - A Wiring two appliances into one plug is safe
 - B Electricity cables are best covered by carpets
 - C All electrical equipment should be visually checked before use
 - D A damaged cable is best repaired with tape

5. Why is it important to turn off the power before touching someone who has had an electric shock?
 - A You will put yourself in danger of electrocution
 - B You could start a fire
 - C It saves electricity
 - D It is safer to work in the dark