

Level 1 Award in Health and Safety for Manufacturing Sample Questions

1. An employee is working on a process that produces dust. The employer has reduced the dust levels as much as possible, but now needs to issue personal protective equipment. Which provides the most effective protection to the employee?

- A Goggles
- B Gloves
- C Face shield
- D Respirator

2. Work equipment is best defined as:

- A any machinery, appliance, apparatus, tool or installation for use at work
- B machinery that can be used to improve the efficiency of any operation
- C washing, drying and printing machines
- D appliances, apparatus and tools that can be used to improve safety

3. Why should you not wear loose clothing when operating equipment?

- A It is not part of the uniform
- B To prevent being caught up or dragged into machinery
- C The buttons may get pulled off
- D It does not look good

4. In first aid the term 'appointed person' is someone who:

- A is responsible for training the first aiders.
- B is required to carry out risk assessments.
- C purchases the first aid equipment.
- D takes charge of a first aid situation

5. A substance bearing an orange label with a 'skull and cross bones' symbol is classed as:

- A hazardous
- B harmful
- C toxic
- D oxidising